What were the goals for the last conference year?

1. To encourage those that have not established a Sons of Allen Ministry to do so.
2. To empower the men of our churches to build stronger relationships our young men in our churches and surrounding communities. To support our local schools with back to school supplies and provide food boxes during the holiday season.

What was accomplished on the annual conference level?

1. We began the planning process for the conference year, but due to the global COVID-19 pandemic all plans and meetings were postponed.

Do you have your goals for this coming year? If so, please list.

We will continue to follow the CDC guidelines and when permissible we will resume normal activity. The goal for this Conference year will be to resume to build relationships with the men and young men of our church and community to develop stronger leaders for the future generation.
