What were the goals for the last conference year?

1. WIM members charged to attend the Prayer Convocation 2018, Baltimore, MD and the Connectional AMEWIM 10th Quadrennial Conference, Birmingham, AL.
2. WIM continued to challenge our churches to birth a new women’s ministry and share their vision, implementation, and progress.
3. WIM appointed a co-coordinator for the Lexington District in hopes to assist both the Louisville and Lexington Districts to “stay connected.”
4. WIM challenged both districts to lead one local community mission project and one conference mission project.
5. WIM members challenged to gather at minimum 1-2 times during the annual conference year.
6. WIM collaboration with Embry Chapel Holy Week worship service.
7. WIM members encouraged to donate to the Black Friday Black Suit Campaign project.
8. WIM members challenged to establish the S.O.S. (Supporting Our Sisters) project.

What was accomplished on the annual conference level?

1. Four KY Conference WIM members attended the Connectional AMEWIM 10th Quadrennial Conference.
2. WIM members attended the Prayer Convocation 2018.
3. WIM members serve as instructors and board members for My Sister’s Keeper Bible and Leadership Academy.
4. WIM members have attended and participated in platform services held by and for the 13th Episcopal District WIM.
5. WIM supports and participates in P.U.S.H. (Pray Until Something Happens) Ministry, hosted by Embry Chapel.

Do you have your goals for this coming year? If so, please list.

As we are in this season of transition, we are prayerful for a new season of recommitment and renewal as we seek ways to revision and rebuild. Also revisit opportunities to expand through an “affiliation” membership with the support of our brothers in Christ.
