

What was accomplished on the annual conference level?

Fayetteville-Pulaski and the Chattanooga-Knoxville Districts were provided with the following information in advance of the 2017 Church School Convention:

- Convention Theme and Scripture provided
- Church School goals were shared with leaders of both Districts.
- Suggested Church School Convention schedule provided to both Districts.
- Sample lesson plans for all grade levels were mailed as well as emailed to leaders.
- Fayetteville-Pulaski District had a “Book Give-Away” and a Black History exhibit during the Church School Convention.
- Both Districts purchased Church School Tee Shirts and were worn during the conventions.
- Attendance at both conventions was well attended.

Do you have your goals for this coming year? If so, please list.

- Continue to move forward by expanding and increasing our numbers in teaching the Word
- Organize and sponsor workshops on topics of interests and based on needs suggested by participants (recruit church school teachers, organize a community choir, drama classes, college tour, newsletter, Read a Thon, collect children’s books and distribute them during conference year, etc.)
