What were the goals for the last conference year? More Training on the conference level, the revision of the Kentucky Conference Lay Organization Constitution and Bylaws, and more participation from churches that have Lay Organizations.

What was accomplished on the annual conference level? We were able to have 3 Mini workshops on Membership growth and retention, Succession Planning and Personal Evangelism. We were able to have our 2 Lay Clusters; 7 Ups in Lexington at Quinn Chapel April 29, 2018 and Those Singin Pastors on July 29, 2018 at Embry Chapel, Elizabethtown. We had our Prayer Breakfast at Ralph Avenue,

Louisville with Rev. Dujuana Wilson as the Speaker on August 11, 2018. We had a very successful Lay Honorees Luncheon on June 9, 2018 in Elizabethtown. We hosted the 2018 13th District Lay Convention in Murfreesboro, TN. While there the conference was able to capture the 2018 Pastor of the Year in Rev. June Anderson-Dorsey, Pastor of Ralph Avenue, Louisville as well as the 13th District YAR (Young Adult Representative) in Dominic Collins of Quinn Chapel, Louisville. Both will display their preaching and liturgical dance abilities at the Lay Witness Night on September 21, 2018 at St. John, Frankfort.

Do you have your goals for this coming year? If so, please list. We will have the 3rd and final reading of the Constitution and Bylaws. We will finalize all plans to attend the 37th Biennial in Seattle, WA as well as begin a training institute where we can have a more comprehensive training session.
