What were the goals for the last conference year?

One of our goals was to start a Learning Institute, this will be done in the 2019-20 Conference year being planned by the 3 Vice Presidents. Another goal was to send a successful delegation to the 36th Biennial Session in Settle, WA.

What was accomplished on the annual conference level? We sent 13 persons representing the KY conference and 13th District to the 36th Biennial Session. The groundwork was laid to begin our Lay Institute by the end of 2019. We welcomed St. Paul, Manchester back into active status on the Conference level. The President spoke at Quinn Chapel, Lexington for Connectional Lay Day in October 2018 and the at St. John, Frankfort in July 2019 for their Lay Day. The Annual Prayer Breakfast was held at Ralph Ave. with Min. Brandon Jagers bringing a powerful word on Unity in the body of Christ. After attending the 13th District Lay Convention the KY Conference again bought home the 13th District Pastor of the Year and the YAR, Rev. Stephanie M. Raglin and Bro. Jackson Jones IV both of Embry Chapel. Our 5th Sunday Cluster 7 in 7 held at St. Paul, Versailles was a huge success. It featured Rev. Nachia Woods, Lic. Robert Sherrod, Sis. Krystal Kent, Sis. Melinda Robinson, Min. Melissa George, and Rev. Louis Haynes. There was a rousing dance by Lic. Lynette Ellis and the music from St. John, Frankfort. The Lay Honorees Luncheon was held in Elizabethtown, KY.

Do you have your goals for this coming year? If so, please list.
To have our Learning Institute as well as to begin Succession Planning for the Conference Lay Officers. To work with inactive churches to bring active again.
